Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do we book a group event at the Texas Renaissance Festival?
You may call our toll free number at 1-800-458-3435 or email picnics@texrenfest.com to check with our Coordinator for dates and times that are available.
2. May we bring a cake into the Festival?
No outside food or drink is allowed to be brought into the park. We do have an onsite bakery that offers several different options for birthday and special occasion cakes. Our website group page lists the sizes and prices of these delectable delights.
3. How small can our group be? How large of a group do you accept?
We do require a group minimum of 25. Our beautiful venues can accommodate a group as large as 400 guests.
4. Are there options available for additional entertainment?
You may add a face painter, a fortune teller, or music to your event for an additional charge. During your time at the venue a group from our world renowned entertainment cast will visit to entertain you and your guests as well. We do not offer game or food tickets.
5. Do we have to use all of the group tickets on the day of our picnic?
No. These are not date specific and may be used on any regular Festival day.
6. Who usually books a group event at the Texas Renaissance Festival?
We can assist any group or individual to plan a day that will long be remembered by all who attend. We have coordinated the following types of events in the past: team safety meetings, corporate gatherings, birthday parties (for guests of all ages), family reunions, bachelor or bachelorette parties, club assemblies, and holiday parties.

We look forward to assisting you in the planning of your next group event.
